About Us

We are a young married couple with no children (unless you count our cat Flakes). We enjoy things that make life easier such as new gadgets. We also love books and movies. Jersha loves a good deal and anything girly. Dup loves Science Fiction, Legos and video games. We are both adventurous and will try anything once! If you think we're the right fit to review a product from your company, we would love to hear from you! Some quick stats are listed to the right. If you need more in-depth statistics, don't hesitate to contact us!
